

You have abivated your sworn obligation to protect the public airwaves with by turning your back on this issue. As a public entity you have chosen to serve public interests, not the public!